

BOSS OF THE MOSS RULES

The competition is open to amateur golfers only. Professional golfers of any type are ineligible. Eligibility as an amateur and maintaining amateur status shall be determined by the rules of the United States Golf Association (USGA) and Wisconsin State Golf Association (WSGA) and all applicable decisions in effect at the time of the event. A person who has previously lost their amateur status is ineligible unless proof is provided that their amateur status has been restored by the USGA or WSGA.

Participants must use golf ball provided by the event coordinators. There is no restriction on the number of times a golf ball may be purchased. Cash and checks will be accepted as payment. Participants must sign this application prior to participating.

The final competition will take place at Walleye Weekend on Sunday, June 10, 2018.

Each participant understands that his or her entry into this event constitutes permission to use his or her name and likeness for advertising and publicity purposes without any additional compensation. Each participant is aware that participation in this event may have a bearing on his or her amateur status. Each golfer is solely responsible for making determinations as to the consequences of participating in this event.

UNITED STATES GOLF ASSOCIATION AMATEUR STATUS WAIVER OF PRIZE MONEY FORM

The Rules of Amateur Status of the United States Golf Association (USGA) define an Amateur Golfer as “One who plays golf for the challenge it presents, not as a profession and not for financial gain.”

Rule 3 (Prizes) of the Rules of Amateur Status prohibits an amateur golfer from “playing for prize money.” Those who choose to do so forfeit his/her amateur status.

The Rules of Amateur Status also provide that “an amateur golfer may participate in a golf match, competition or exhibition where prize money or its equivalent is offered, provided that prior to participation he/she waives his/her right to accept prize money in that event.”

The USGA makes available this waiver form to assist those who wish to protect their amateur status by waiving their right to accept prize money in advance of a competition. Amateur golfers who wish to do so should sign this sheet and submit it to the USGA, no later than the first day of the competition in which they wish to play. He/She also understands that by signing this waiver form, he/she agrees, as a condition of entry, not to accept any prize money or its equivalent from any competition sponsor or organizer.

Further, any player who has previously forfeited his/her amateur status, but wishes to be considered for reinstatement, may also sign and submit this waiver form to the USGA. His/Her signature will be accepted as an indication that he/she did not violate the Rules by playing in the referenced competition for prize money or its equivalent. Players who wish to apply for reinstatement may obtain the necessary information and application forms at:http://www.usga.org/rules/amateur_status/reinstatement/Apply-for-Reinstatement-to-AmateurStatus/.

Therefore, on the basis of the above interpretation and understanding, the undersigned declares that he/she shall not and will not accept prize money in the following competition:

Boss of the Moss
(Name of Competition)

He/She further expresses a desire to retain his/her amateur status.

It is also understood that this waiver form must be returned to the USGA prior to the start of the referenced competition and will not be accepted after the competition has commenced.
